

Volunteer

Legend
-> - what the data from the database would be
Red tabs – if they click on a tab
White tabs – they can click on the tab an any moment

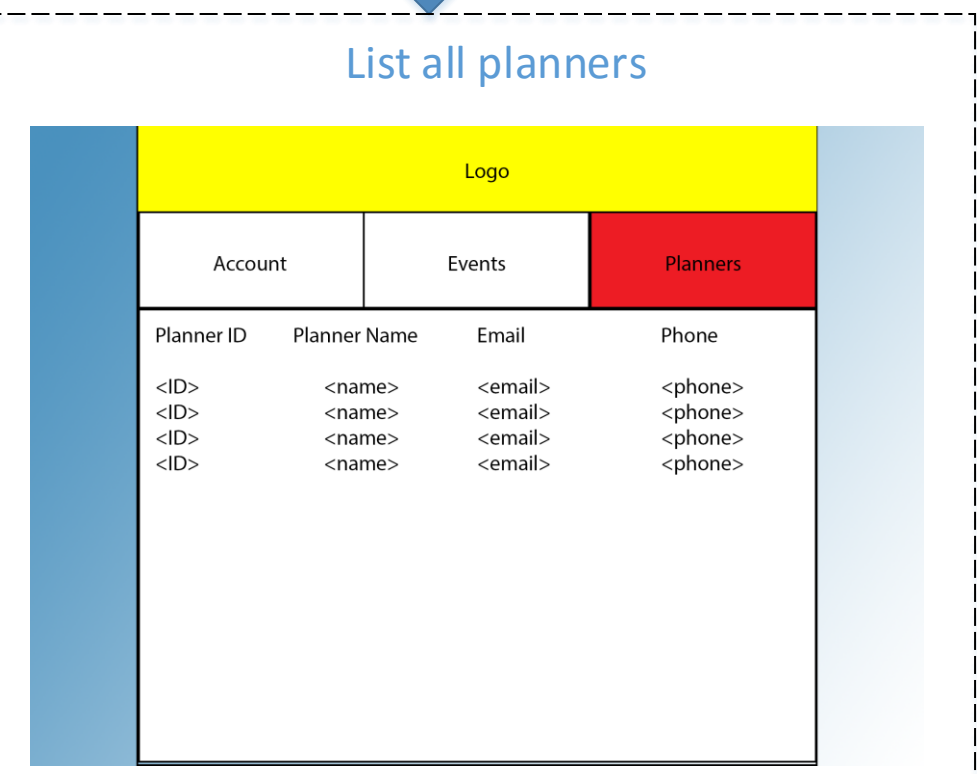

First page that the volunteer see's when he/she types in domain name of website

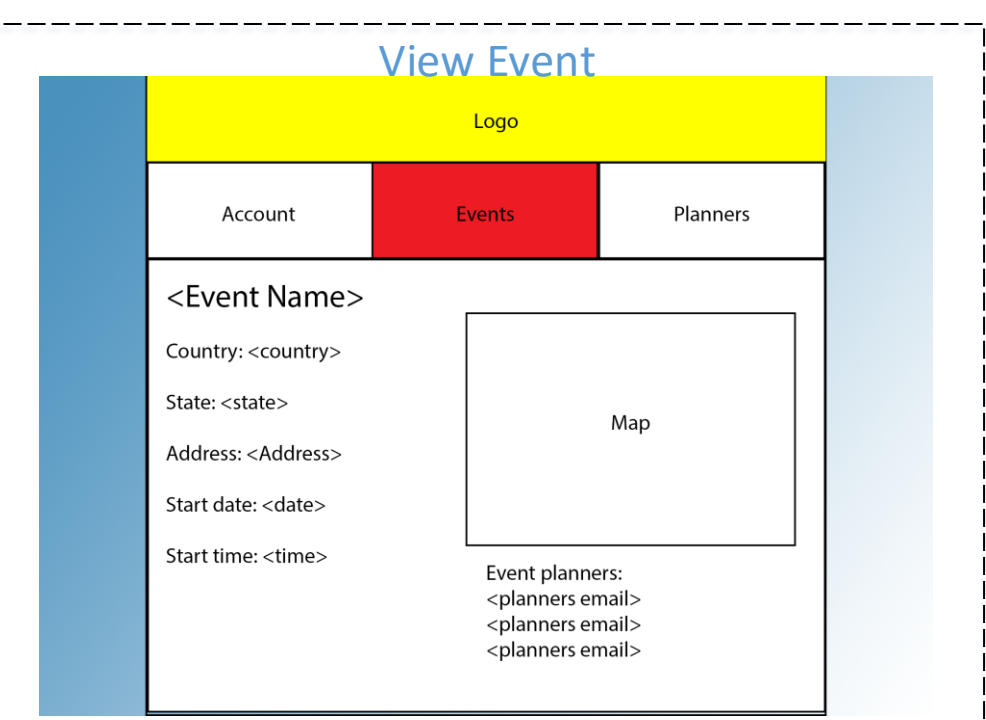

The volunteer is asked to enter credentials so they access volunteers features

The volunteer's account page is displayed after a successful login

The planners page, after the volunteer clicks on the planner's tab. From here they can copy the email address or number, to email or call the planner

The event page the volunteer is assigned on would be shown when they click on the events tab

